

Amazon CloudWatch Incident Investigation - Architecture

End-to-end flow: log generation, centralized collection, investigation, detection, alerting, and visualization

Incident detection and response flow

An application error is written on EC2, collected by the CloudWatch Agent, analyzed with Logs Insights, counted by a metric filter, and used to trigger a CloudWatch alarm. SNS sends the alert by email, while the dashboard provides a visual monitoring view.